

WEEKLY

October 4-6

update

Happy first week of October!!

This short week brings the introduction of 5 sentence paragraphs (we call them hamburger paragraphs), smaller groups of phonics work, and a new book report.

This month's book report will be in the genre of mystery. Students and I will discuss the look of this book report and the process of picking a book this week.

Have a great week!

WHAT WE ARE LEARNING

With our personal narratives published, we will spend a lot of time this week working on asking and answering questions and sequencing stories. Learning to write a third grade level paragraph will bring short writing activities and practicing our new skill.

This week we are working on using models to add and adding three digit numbers. Our chapter two test is coming up!

We studied the regions of Michigan last week while practice our skills of finding main idea and supporting details. This week we will

In Religion, we are learning the Apostles Creed. Students have a copy now stuck to the inside of their yellow folders to practice at home. This week, we will continue learning about the Trinity and how it shows us how to love.

REMINDERS

The Apostles Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father
almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen.
